Hands-on internship experience in Python development, bringing practical knowledge from building and deploying scalable web applications using Python frameworks such as Django and React. Experienced in developing RESTful APIs, integrating databases like PostgreSQL and MySQL, and utilizing version control with Git. Proficient in using collaboration platforms for efficient team-based development.

Rich farmers

Designed and developed a web-based platform that empowers farmers by enabling direct product purchases and service bookings, reducing reliance on intermediaries. The system allows users to buy seeds, fertilizers, rent tools, and access farming-related services. It enhances farmer profitability and encourages the adoption of modern agricultural practices through a user-friendly digital interface.
